

...out of the Hawkesbury

“it has a tang to it”

Tutti Fruitti – Bilpin – Hawkesbury Harvest welcomes the proprietors of Glenwood Orchard, John and Cynthia to the Farm Gate Trail.

This is truly a family affair. Their daughters have some fantastic ideas combining the assorted berries grown on the property with a tangy homemade ice cream (the machine has been imported from New Zealand).

A vast array of fresh mountain roses, apples from Glenwood, locally grown produce and value added products will compliment this very quaint outlet at 1917 Bells Line of Road – Bilpin.

“a country classic”

Packing Shed Patchwork is a unique experience indeed! Larna Ezzy has transformed an old packing shed, that has been on the family property for decades into a wonderful country experience.

Larna has joined Hawkesbury Harvest offering personal tuition and classes in the traditional art of hand patchwork and quilting Set among superb surrounding on Cabbage Tree Road in Grose Vale, Larna has managed to retain a true country experience through the quilts, wall hanging, wedding cushions and other beautiful pieces of hand stitching.

Welcome to the Harvest!

“go’n to the chapel”

Set on 5 magnificent acres of tranquil gardens Chapel Hill is the creation of Teresa Howe, one of the most caring & compassionate people one could meet.

A replica of an early Australian style country church, this non denominational Chapel boasts windows of floor to ceiling stained glass. Complete with accommodation /package Teresa is happy to tailor a wedding or function to suit your special occasion. The property itself was first settled in 1830 by Lt. George Meares Countess Bowen.

Teresa has dedicated her life to caring for others and the Chapel was built in memory of “those who loved and were loved in return” A wonderful experience on the Trail!
