

We would be very pleased if you would accept these discount vouchers to help us celebrate the Festive Season and also our first 12 months of operation as your local a la carte restaurant. Many of you have already visited our restaurant and tasted the outstanding food of our chef, David Falson (ex Balmoral Bathers Pavilion) and experienced the hospitality of his dedicated staff.

For those who are not so familiar with Toque and its offerings we have a seasonally changing a la carte menu for both evening and lunches together with a brunch menu for weekends along with daily specials. We offer relaxed dining either in our historic settlers cottage or its tasteful rear extension or outside on our verandas or gardens. Panoramic views are to be had and our cottage garden contains many edible plants for use in our kitchen. We cater for special dietary needs too.

We don't have BYO as our wines are selected to compliment our food and are very reasonably priced.

So, please accept these discount vouchers with our best wishes and we hope to see you soon. To tempt you why not visit our web site and see our current menu and offerings!
